

North Carolina: Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) Fund Hot Zone Types by Census Tract

Note: Hot Zones are either metropolitan census tracts or nonmetropolitan census tracts or counties with an unemployment rate 1.5 times the national average (Econ. Dev. Hot Zones Only); a poverty rate at or above 20 percent; and/or a median monthly rental cost that exceeds 30 percent of the gross monthly income of a low-income household (Housing Hot Zones Only).

- Hot Zone Ineligible
- Economic Development Hot Zone
- Housing Hot Zone
- Econ. Dev. & Housing Hot Zone