2008 Interagency CRA Training Workshop

This workshop is designed for the CRA officers of small or intermediate small banks interested in obtaining up-to-date information about developing a CRA Plan; forming meaningful partnerships; determining qualified community development lending, services, and investments; assessing community needs; and creating the bank's personal CRA Performance Context. In addition, regulators will provide best practice examples of partnerships and initiatives used by other banks to improve their CRA performance. The workshop will be held at the Clarion Town House Hotel in downtown Columbia. Participants will receive a workbook and CD-ROM featuring invaluable resources.

If you have any questions please call the SCBA at 803-779-0850.
