Time: 4:30p.m. – 6:30p.m.

Location: Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Baltimore Branch
502 South Sharp Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21201

A Night at the Fed is a free lecture series for educators sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond and the Maryland Council for Economic Education. Please note that each presentation is followed by a question and answer session.

The first 45 people to register will receive free parking at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Baltimore Branch. For all other visitors, parking is available at nearby garages for a nominal fee. A city map is attached for your convenience. To access the Federal Reserve parking area, please complete the make, model, and license information below. Visitors may access the front entrance of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Baltimore Branch, from South Sharp Street.

Directions:

From Route 95, take the Inner Harbor/Camden Yards Exit, Route 395. Turn Right onto North Conway Street. Make your first right onto South Sharp Street. The bank is right across from the Baltimore Convention Center and Camden Yards. The bank's front entrance is a quick right, after turning onto South Sharp Street.

All guests are required to present photo identification to Law Enforcement Officers in order to enter the Baltimore Branch.
