Achievements (cont.)

1884-1899: She moved through the ranks of the Independent Order of St. Luke's, attaining its highest rank, Right Worthy Grand Secretary.

1902-1903: She established a newspaper, St. Luke Herald and chartered St. Luke Penny Savings Bank.

Fun Facts

She was the first African-American woman bank president in the United States.

Her bank merged with two other banks in the past. In 2005 it was acquired by Abigail Adams National Bancorp, Inc.

Her house at 1101/2 East Leigh St. in Richmond was designated a National Historic site in 1978, and is open for tours.

Quotes

"We need a savings bank, chartered, offered, and run by the men and women of this Order...Let us have a bank that will take nickels and turn them into dollars."

"If our women want to avoid the traps and snares of life, they must band themselves together, organize, acknowledge leadership...and work in business for themselves."
