

Richmond • Baltimore • Charlotte

Fifth Federal Reserve District
Joint Council on Economic Education Summit

September 25, 2019
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond – Charlotte Branch

Agenda

- 9:00 a.m. Networking Breakfast
Enjoy breakfast while meeting other program participants.
- 9:25 a.m. Welcome
Learn more about the Fed's efforts to support economic education throughout the 5th District.
Ann Macheras, Group Vice President
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
- 9:30 a.m. The Rural-Urban Disparity
Learn about the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond's research into Rural-Urban disparities.
Laura Ullrich, Regional Economist
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond – Charlotte Branch
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Post-Secondary Paths: Risks and Rewards to Students
Explore the recent data and research on the payoffs and challenges of pursuing post-secondary education for students in urban and rural settings.
Matt Martin, Vice President and Regional Executive
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond – Charlotte Branch
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch
Enjoy lunch while discussing the morning sessions with program participants.

Richmond • Baltimore • Charlotte

- 12:15 p.m. Rural Educator Perspectives Panel
Hear from educators working with students and about the unique challenges and opportunities facing rural educators in our region.
Dr. Eleanor Glover Gladney – SC Dept. of Education
Edward Hallyburton – East Burke High School
Ebony Williams – High Point Central and Twilight High Schools
Moderator – Kevin Woodcox, Senior Economic Education Specialist
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
- 1:15 p.m. Entrepreneurship Education
Learn about entrepreneurship education recourses and programs that can be used directly to support rural students and educators.
James Wilcox, Director
Center for Economic and Entrepreneurship Education – University of Southern Mississippi
- 2:45 p.m. Break
- 3:00 p.m. Round Table - Partnership Opportunities
Where do we collectively go from here? Join the roundtable discussion and brainstorm ideas, strategies, and partnerships that can support rural students and educators.
Moderator – David Bass, Senior Outreach Specialist
Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
- 4:00 p.m. Adjourn