

Supervision News Flash

October 17, 2014

The Fed is offering two great call-in sessions in the next two weeks, we hope you can join us for one or both.

FedPerspectives on Community Banking with Gov. Jay Powell

- Monday, October 20, 10-11am ET
- Governor Powell will answer your questions on matters affecting community banks. Our time will be limited, so we encourage you to submit questions in advance.
- Register: www.stlouisfed.org/perspectives
- Questions: fedperspectives@stls.frb.org

Ask the Fed: Accounting Hot Topics

- Tuesday, October 28, 2-3pm ET
- Steve Merriett, Chief Accountant, from the Federal Reserve Board of Governors will cover a wide variety of current accounting topics which will include the FASB's proposal on accounting for credit losses, account for subsequent restructurings of a Troubled Debt Restructure (TDR), recent changes in accounting for foreclosed assets, and more. And of course, Steve and members of his staff will be on hand to take your questions.
- Register: www.askthefed.org
- Questions: askthefed@stls.frb.org