

The Charlotte Chamber of Commerce Presents:
Access to Capital: Financing for Micro-Entrepreneurs & Small Businesses

Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Charlotte Office
530 East Trade Street
Charlotte, North Carolina

August 22, 2012
11 am – 2pm

- 11:00- 11:30 am Registration & Lunch
- 11:35- 11:40 Welcome
- Tammie Hoy, Regional Community Development Manager, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
 - Rod Garvin, Director of Member Engagement, Charlotte Chamber
- 11:40- 12:00 SBA and Micro Finance
- Participants will learn how micro financing and the U.S. Small Business Administration's (SBA) lending products can give your business a financial boost.
- Lynn Douthett, State Director, North Carolina, SBA
- 12:00- 1:00 Micro Finance Panel
- Participants will gain insight on how micro financing is transforming the global economy and how it can provide working capital to micro-entrepreneurs and small businesses in the Charlotte region.
- Moderator: Lynn Douthett, Director, North Carolina, SBA
- Panelists:
- Joe Mynatt, Managing Director - U.S. Corporate Banking, Wells Fargo
Co-Chair, Grameen America, Charlotte
 - Rosanna Saladin, Executive Director, Michael Scott Mater Foundation
 - Nikia Sharp, Commercial Credit Officer, Self Help Credit Union
 - Roberta McCullough, Vice President - Business Services & Operations,
The Support Center – North Carolina
- 1:00 Wrap-up
- Tammie Hoy, Regional Community Development Manager, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
 - Rod Garvin, Director of Member Engagement, Charlotte Chamber
- 1:10- 2:00 Small Business /Micro Finance Resource Fair
- Participants will have the opportunity to meet with small business service providers and micro finance and small business lenders.