

NONPROFIT SECTOR IN THE U.S. AND THE FIFTH DISTRICT

THE NONPROFIT SECTOR in the United States influences the economy, the workforce and livelihoods of American citizens. Recent research has determined that from 2000 to 2010, the nonprofit sector had an average annual employment growth of 21 percent compared to minus 0.6 percent for the for-profit sector. Nonprofits play a variety of roles in our daily lives, from providing higher education and medical care to supporting the arts.

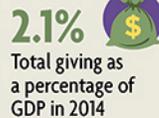

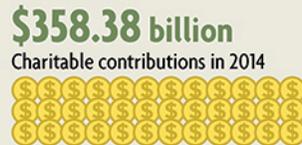

WHAT IS THE VALUE TO THE ECONOMY?

501(c)(3) nonprofits accounted for 5.3 percent of gross domestic product in 2014, according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis.
